ABOUT ME

LadyChoc Is a South African House Music artist whose sound is rooted in the rich culture of house music. Celebrated for her refined music selection and sophisticated approach to storytelling behind the decks, she crafts immersive sets that blend emotion, groove, and rhythm into unforgettable dancefloor experiences.

Driven by passion for authentic House music. Ladychoc has developed a distinctive style that balances timeless classics with contemporary sounds. Her Performances are characterised by seamless transitions, rich musical textures, and an intuitive ability to read a crowd, making every set feel personal, dynamic, and memorable

More than a DJ, LadyChoc is a curator of atmosphere. Whether performing at luxury venues, lifestyle events, music festivals, rooftop sessions, or exclusive private experiences, she brings a polished stage presence and a deep appreciation for House music culture. Her Sets are designed not simply to entertain, but to create meaningful moments of connection through sound.

As her profile continues to grow, LadyChoc is expanding her presence across radio, digital platforms, and the global House music community through collaborations, original productions, and carefully curated live performances. With a Vision that extends beyond the booth, she is building a brand defined by elegance, authenticity, and musical excellence.

Inspired by the global House movement while proudly representing South Africa's vibrant House Music scene, LadyChoc continues to push creative boundaries with every performance. Her Journey is guided by a commitment to quality, innovation and the belief that great House music transcends borders, bringing people together through rhythm, soul and timeless grooves.
